Training Symposium

Registration will open on April 1st. The board discussed changing the symposium to entirely online, but decided to wait and see the status of COVID-19 as it gets closer. The board will begin to plan for contingencies in case it does need move the symposium to an online forum.

We currently have two presenters, Dawn Reeby and Chris Gray, reserved for the symposium. Mindy will send out another request for presentations. The Training Committee has also secured a number of vendors who may have relevant and interesting (non-sales) presentations to share.

Quarterly Training

The second quarterly training of 2020 will be held entirely online due to COVID-19.

New Member

Garrett Williams, graduate student at UC Denver

Finances

Anna Marie sent out the March Financial Statement. It will be posted on the website. The ending balance for March was $3,778.96.

Other Items

By-Laws: Due to the change in meeting schedule (monthly to quarterly), there may need to be a change in the organization's by-laws. The board will review the by-laws and propose a change for the membership to vote on soon.

Promoting excellence, integrity, and innovation in the field of Crime Analysis

Election Season: Voting will remain open through April 13th. The winners will be announced during the quarterly training on April 14th and the newly elected board members will take office immediately.
